The work in this training course contained all elements as described below:

The training focused on the steps needed to come to an ALTE accreditation procedure for the multi-level test for English as developed by experts of The State Test Center of Uzbekistan. During two online meetings different aspects of language test(s) were discussed as core values in testing (validity, reliability, fairness, etc.), test development for languages based on international standards and also the mapping of tasks for the four language skills onto CEFR.
